

GENVIEN “GV PRESS PASS” REQUIREMENTS

Genvien authorizes press credentials at Genvien events. Genvien grants press credentials through the GV Public Affairs. Applicants seeking press credentials must submit several documents and meet certain eligibility requirements. Completing an application does not guarantee approval.

Professional Eligibility

To obtain a GV press credential, applicant must present work samples. Journalists are also eligible if they cover events sponsored by Genvien that admit journalists.

Work Samples

Journalists must provide Genvien Public Affairs with the minimum of one published article, editorial piece or book published within the one year prior to the submission of the application. Applicants who work in other media must present at least one film, photograph, video, or audio broadcast published within one year prior to the application.

Four Events

A journalist must provide a list of four articles or events that he or she has covered within one year prior to the submission of the application. The journalist must have covered events in person and each event must have occurred on a different day. (If you have not covered four events, Public Affairs have the right to grant a press release based on each individual).

Documents

All applicants must submit a completed application and the sample work to Genvien Public Affairs. Applications must be delivered to info@genvien.com
